

All they'll hear is you.

Eliminating up to 93% of background noise, the VXi VoxStar™ is the Bluetooth® headset that lets people hear you, not the noise around you. Because VoxStar's flexible boom puts the mic right at your mouth, you will sound like you're in a private office—even when you're not.

Benefits

- Be heard clearly with the industry's best noise canceling—guaranteed.
- Get your voice recognition system to actually understand you.
- Connect to two phones, or any two Bluetooth devices, at once.
- Stream music or GPS directions.
- Talk for over 7 hours per battery charge.
- Wear comfortably for hours.
- Make your phone a walkie-talkie with the VXi BlueParrott App. Push to talk to one person or a group on Android or iOS phones.

Sound like you're in a private office, wherever you go. With VoxStar.
